

The power companies apparently have in mind use of more of the spectrum than they are letting on. Using power company arguments that claim 136 khz activity would disrupt their 490 khz PLC control operations, The same can also be said of their 490 khz signals disrupting all amateur hf frequencies above that fundamental frequency. Why not pose the use of HF frequencies exclusively between 30 mhz and 50 mhz ?